

The Green Generation Earth Day 2010

April 22nd

You are Invited...

Join the City of Benicia to celebrate The Green Generation, Earth Day 2010, as it relates to our community.

When: Thursday, April 22nd, 4:30 – 7:30 p.m.
Where: Senior Center/Library Complex, 187 East L Street. Benicia
Why: To provide tools to residents and homeowners for being energy and water efficient, and highlight resources available within the community.

EVENT PARTICIPANTS

Allied Waste ▪ Benicia Main Street Farmers Market ▪ Bookshop Benicia ▪ Master Gardeners Benicia Plumbing ▪ Farm Fresh to You ▪ Wheels In Motion ▪ Benicia High School SAGE Program ▪ California Native Plant Society ▪ Pedrotti ACE Hardware ▪ Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts Art Projects for kids ▪ Caterpillar Puppets ▪ Ennovationz ▪ Solano County Outdoor Recreation Events ▪ Historic Preservation Review Commission ▪ Community Sustainability Commission ▪ Art projects for the kids and more

The City of Benicia Climate Action Plan ▪ Green building and energy efficiency retrofit information
Library resources for green living and eco education ▪ Water conservation techniques ▪ Tree program ▪ Benicia Community Center green building efforts (LEED) ▪ Recycling ▪ Storm Water

ON SITE RECYCLING

Visit the E-Waste Truck to get rid of those unwanted electronics.

E-Waste Recycling will be on location collecting TV's, computers, monitors and other e-waste. They will collect and recycle your dead batteries and old, unused or broken cell phones

Art Exhibit

Art Exhibit by Mike Kendall in the Marilyn Citron O'Rourke Art Gallery at the Library.

You won't want to miss the CAR DISPLAY

Featuring high efficiency vehicles. Come see the new Smart Car and Hybrid Vehicles

For additional information about Earth Day 2010, please contact Terry Baldwin in the Public Works & Community Development Department at (707) 746-4370, or by email, tbaldwin@ci.benicia.ca.us

Sponsored by the Public Works & Community Development Department

Printed on 100% recycled paper